

YEAR 2 BOOK WARMER

SUMMER A

'The Proud Blue' is a picture book which celebrates the importance and beauty of the hijab.

The author Ibtihaj Muhammad is an American fencer. Her career choice was influenced by her family's religious beliefs.

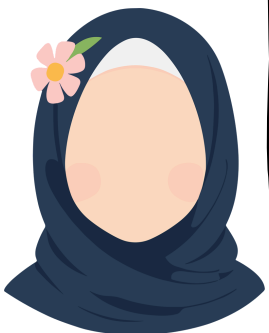

This half term's text

What are the key parts of your identity?

The book is inspired by the author's own experiences.

A hijab is a head covering worn by some Muslim women. It usually covers the hair, ears and neck of the person wearing it.

The story challenges negative ideas around differences and encourages pride and expressing religious identity.