Eggs

You may have noticed we have new female pupils here at Thorndown on the feathered kind. We will now be selling eggs daily for £1.50 per half dozen, so if you would like any – please pop into the office with an egg box!

School Meal Balances

Please can we repeat the message that the balance on your School Gateway account is incorrect. The office has switched to a new database – Scholarpack – and at this time it does not link with the School Gateway. We will text you when your school meal account is in arrears and can provide you with further details if you require them.
