Traction Man is a toy superhero who lives in a house with a little boy. He wears cool outfits like a space suit, diving gear, and jungle clothes. He goes on exciting adventures all around the house! He dives into the sink to rescue a lost spoon, saves toys from danger, and even battles the evil dishcloth! His best friend is a brave scrubbing brush who helps him on his missions. One day, he gets a silly green outfit from Granny—but even in that, he's still a hero! Nothing can stop Traction Man from saving the day!
